Ashford Art Nights

If you paint or make crafts and you're tired of feeling alone while you work, come and join us for a night of fun and conversation! We will meet on Zoom and chat while we work. This is NOT a group project, just work on whatever you have going on at the moment - you can share it with others or just be there to socialize. First Meeting will be February 16th 7-7:30pm.

Contact Anna at
c.anna1@yahoo.com
for the Zoom link.

Prometheus Theatre of the Air announces its tenth production: a live streaming audio adaption of Henrik Ibsen's classic drama, "A Doll's House"!

Artist of the Month – Kathy Lepak

AAC Member Kathy Lepak has been creating beautiful artwork that combines her iconic art illustrations with her mastery of Calligraphy for many years. We are proud that she participates in our Holiday Artists Markets because she sells her beautiful notecards, and her illustrated books. She is also an accomplished writer and you can see her delightful and heartfelt stories in several issues of Neighbors from 2020. These can be seen online on the Neighbors website. For over 40 years, her work has included logo design and corporate identity programs, book illustration, calligraphic commissions, wedding calligraphy, graphic design and illustrated, inspirational verses. Kathy also creates personalized accordion books and handcrafted greeting cards for clients. She has volunteered her design and calligraphy services to The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp in Ashford for over 30 years.
