

Join us at our Monthly Meetings
Public Welcome

October 12th
7:00pm - 9:00pm at the Knowlton Memorial Hall in Ashford. Lance Arnold will be our meeting presenter

Tony Paticchio, Ashford's Poet Laureate, will be hosting a Fall 2022 Poetry Reading and Writing Workshop for up to ten participants via Zoom on the following six Wednesday evenings from 6:30-8:40 PM: October 5, 19, November 2, 16, 30, and December 14.

Participants: This workshop is open to writing participants who are willing to share and workshop their own poems, as well as to those who are interested in reading and discussing poetry. Please indicate your preference when you contact me at 04AJPATI@GMAIL.COM.

Details can be found on our website: www.AshfordArts.org.

ASHFORD AREA ARTS COUNCIL MEMBERS SHOW OCTOBER at THE VANILLA BEAN!

Come to the Vanilla Bean to view, perhaps purchase a special gift, made with love by our talented artists. Over 20+ artists will show.

The award-winning Vanilla Bean pride themselves on being "a friend of the arts". They have both indoor and outdoor breakfast and lunch dining. They are located at 450 Deerfield Rd, Pomfret, CT (860) 928-1562 (call for hours of operation).

ARTIST SPOTLIGHT: Lance Arnold

Lance will be our meeting presenter on October 12th at Knowlton Memorial Hall in Ashford beginning at 7:00pm. A former science teacher and self-taught artist, Lance Arnold has always possessed an intense love of the ocean, and he often harvests treasures from the sea and beaches for his one-of-a-kind glass compositions and sculptures. Lance's show and tell will be a presentation of his early stained glass through the popular fairy houses. He will have pass-around objects and show tools and techniques used in glass panels and sculptures, acrylic ink paintings, found objects materials, and fairy houses. Visit Lance Arnold in his Lance Glass studio/gallery in Ashford, CT. Contact Lance at 1-860-487-0848 or via larnold0848@charter.net.

The public is always welcome to attend presentation & are free to leave before meeting
